September 2023

This newsletter brings you the latest equality news and developments at the Edinburgh College. Anyone at the College is welcome to contribute to this newsletter, please contact the EDI Lead for more information.

Edinburgh College's Diversity Calendar is now even more colourful and attractive.

When you click on the description of each special event, you will be able to explore more information.

Do let us know if there are other events we should include in this calendar.

CALL IT OUT

We are launching a new way to help everyone at the College to report any hate or misogyny incidents to us. These incidents can be reported anonymously or with contact details. We need help with developing awareness campaigns across the campuses. Can you help?

Report Anonymously

Report with Contact Details

We continue to develop new EDI workshops for staff and students. If your team or class would be interested in learning more about EDI practices, please do get in touch.

The College is a member of Edinburgh Legacy Review Supporters Network. The College has pledged to decolonising the curriculum. If you are interested in this area of work or want to help the College to become an anti-racist College, please contact EDI Lead.

Similarly, the College has made a pledge to National Advisory Council on Women and Girls (NACWG):

Edinburgh College is committed to embed gender equality in our education and services, and promote positive behaviour towards women and girls in the College community.

To see pledges made by other organisations, please visit <https://www.generationequal.scot/get-involved/make-your-pledge/>

Mainstreaming

WAX-ED is a college-wide strategic group which progresses our Equality Outcomes. The next meeting is on Friday 22 September 11am.

If you would like the college to establish other interest groups, please talk to us.

Coming Soon

A new Trans and Non-Binary Inclusion Policy has been developed to help the College to support employees and students who wish to change their gender identity. If you would like to receive a copy of the draft policy, please contact us.
